

AS PART OF THE KSCQ CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

the Knights of the Southern Cross (Qld) Inc are proud to present a display of memorabilia highlighting their history, achievements and successes.

12 March – 20 March 2022

ALL ARE WELCOME TO VIEW THIS DISPLAY

ENTRY IS FREE

The Display will be held in the Hanly Room in the Francis Rush Centre adjacent to the Cathedral of St Stephen in Elizabeth Street, Brisbane Q

The display will contain KSCQ memorabilia from across Queensland, as well as the cross of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, on loan from the Archdiocese of Sydney.

The Knights of the Southern Cross have adopted St Mary of the Cross MacKillop as their Patron. Two Crosses were made by the Knights from the floorboards of Sister Mary Mackillop's original school in Penola, South Australia. Both crosses are 2.7m by 1.4 m.

One Cross was presented to Pope St John Paul II during his open-air Mass at Randwick, Sydney in 1986. The other Cross was presented to the Archbishop of Sydney, Edward Cardinal Clancy. This Cross remained in St Mary's Cathedral for many years and played a key role in the Beatification ceremonies for (the then) Blessed Mary MacKillop in 1995.

Immediately prior to her canonisation the Cross was taken on a pilgrimage through the eastern States of Australia.
